

Normality

You should live like normal people... like dignified people... nothing of indignity, childishness or joker-like, clownish or outstandingly funny... all these 'dresses' should not be worn. You should be properly dressed, in a way that you have a 'presence' (800927); People don't understand... what is normal... everybody seems to be abnormal or subnormal in modern times... even the psychologists can't define what is 'normal' is. Normal... is that which is auspicious (800721)
